Step into Plumfield and Meet the Endearing Characters

Little Men tells the story of Jo March, the spirited heroine from Alcott's iconic Little Women, and her role as the matron of the Plumfield Home for Boys. As she embarks on this new chapter in her life, Jo's warmth, humor, and love inspire a diverse group of young boys who come to call Plumfield home.

Through their adventures and misadventures, these little men learn valuable lessons about friendship, loyalty, responsibility, and the power of perseverance. Readers of all ages will be charmed by the heartwarming camaraderie among the boys and inspired by their journeys of self-discovery.

Meet the Unforgettable Boys of Plumfield

* Nat Blake: The lively and imaginative orphan boy who becomes Jo's right-hand man. * Dan Kean: The shy and sensitive musician with a heart of gold. * Tommy Bangs: The mischievous and lovable prankster who keeps life at Plumfield lively. * Demi Brooke: The wealthy and privileged boy who learns the importance of humility. * Josie March: Jo's loving and loyal younger sister, who shares her wisdom and compassion.

Original Illustrations Bring the Story to Life

In this new edition, Alcott's original illustrations add a special layer of charm and authenticity to the story. These beautiful pen-and-ink drawings capture the essence of the characters and provide a glimpse into the author's imagination. With every turn of the page, readers will feel as if they are stepping into the warm and welcoming world of Plumfield.

Embrace the Timeless Charm of Black-and-White Illustrations

* Delicate lines and intricate details bring the characters and their surroundings to life. * Captivating expressions and gestures convey the emotions and personalities of the characters. * Charming vignettes enhance the storytelling by providing visual glimpses into the lives of the boys.

A Treasure for Book Lovers and Collectors
