A Journey Through the Political Landscape with Laughter and Wit

Since their inception in 1981, the Capitol Steps have been entertaining audiences with their clever political satire and incisive wit. Their shows have graced the stages of prestigious theaters across the country and even reached the White House. "Capitol Steps and Missteps" captures the essence of their signature humor, presenting a unique perspective on the political landscape.

An Unbiased Exploration of Both Sides of the Aisle

One of the aspects that sets "Capitol Steps and Missteps" apart is its bipartisan approach. The book does not favor one political party over another, instead choosing to playfully critique both sides of the aisle. This approach ensures that readers can enjoy the humor regardless of their political leanings.

A Treasure Trove of Political Anecdotes and Insights

The book is filled with a collection of hilarious anecdotes, behind-the-scenes stories, and insider insights from the Capitol Steps troupe. These stories reveal the humorous side of politics, shedding light on the lesser-known aspects of Washington's power dynamics.

Meet the Masterminds Behind the Capitol Steps

"Capitol Steps and Missteps" also introduces the talented individuals behind the Capitol Steps comedy troupe. Readers will learn about their unique backgrounds, creative process, and the inspiration behind their iconic performances.
