The poems in The Body Ghost Poems are often unflinching in their honesty, but they are also full of beauty and hope. Lease writes about the pain of chronic illness, the grief of losing a loved one, and the challenges of living in a body that is not always seen as worthy or whole. But even in the darkest of times, Lease finds moments of grace and transcendence.

The Body Ghost Poems is a powerful and moving collection of poems that will resonate with anyone who has ever struggled with illness, loss, or the complexities of embodiment. Lease's poems are a reminder that even in the face of adversity, we are all capable of finding beauty, hope, and healing.
