My dear Fanny
 Nov 20th

I have brought me up, and I must for ever the following - You are my dear John Keats - Great Poets now on Earth are, representing
 The of the Cloud the Cat and the Lake
 When on Helvellyn's summit, under a wake
 Catches his freshness from Archangel's wing
 The of the Snow the Wood the Spring
 The social Poets, the Chain for Johnson's sake
 And so! - whose staff of truth, should never take
 A manner of mind, these Raphael Whispersings
 And other Poets are these standing stones
 Upon the forehead of the Age to come
 These Poets will give the light another heart
 And other pulses - they will not the beam
 Of mighty Wandering in a distant heart
 Listen while ye Nations and be dumb!
 J.K.
